

COOKIE POLICY

This Cookie Policy (hereinafter referred to as the "Policy") applies in addition to the Personal Data Processing Policy applicable to the products and services of JSC "Group of Companies "MEDSI" (hereinafter referred to as the "Company"). The Policy describes the types of Cookies, the purposes of their use, how the Company processes data collected during website visitors' use of <https://medsi.com/> (hereinafter referred to as the "website"), and the methods by which you can refuse the processing of Cookies.

Upon your first visit using a new browser or in private browsing mode, a banner is provided that notifies website visitors of the collection of Cookies on the site and requests your consent to the processing of Cookies. By clicking the "Accept" button or continuing to use the website, you give your consent to the processing of your Cookies. You may also refuse the processing of Cookies; however, such refusal may lead to incorrect operation of the website.

1. What are Cookies?

Cookies are a small piece of data that a website requests from the browser used on your computer or mobile device. Cookies reflect your preferences or actions on the website, as well as information about the user's hardware, and the date and time of the session. Cookies are stored locally on your computer or mobile device. If you wish, you can delete saved Cookies in your browser settings.

2. How do we use your Cookies?

Cookies are used by the Company to improve the functioning of the website. Information about the actions of website users is processed to improve the Company's products and services, determine user preferences, and is used to enhance personalization and interactivity in providing targeted information about products and services on the Company's website.

3. How do we process your Cookies?

The website processes the data received, including through the use of metric programs. Third parties do not have access to the website's Cookies. Third parties (e.g., Microsoft, Google, Yandex, etc.) that collect Cookies, including your browser, have their own Cookie usage policies.

4. What types of Cookies do we use?

Session Cookies

Exist only in temporary memory while the user is on a website page. Browsers usually delete session Cookies after you close the website window. Session Cookies allow the website to remember information about your choices on the previous page to avoid the need to re-enter information.

Persistent Cookies

Cookies that are stored on your computer and are not deleted when you close your browser. Persistent Cookies can save user settings for a specific website, allowing these preferences to be used in future browsing sessions. Such Cookies allow us to identify you as a unique website user and, upon your return to the website, help us remember information about you and your previous actions.

Statistical Cookies

Include information about how you use the website. For example, which pages you visit, which links you click on. The main purpose of such Cookies is to improve site functions.

Mandatory Cookies

The minimum set of Cookies necessary for the correct operation of the site.

5. How to refuse the processing of Cookies?

You can refuse the processing of Cookies in your browser settings (please review this option in the "Help" section of your browser). In that case, our site will use only those Cookies that are strictly necessary for the functioning of the site and the services it offers.

6. How to contact us?

If you have any questions related to the processing of your personal data or the exercise of the rights of a personal data subject, please contact us by email at: claim@medsigroup.ru.
